

Architectural Technician Permanent, full time.

We are a multidisciplinary Architectural Practice specialising to the Commercial, Industrial, Manufacturing and Logistic sectors.

What we offer

- Competitive salary with annual bonuses
- Opportunities for professional growth & career advancement
- A supportive and collaborative work environment
- Involvement in a variety of challenging and innovative commercial projects
- Holidays, Bank Holidays & Christmas shutdown
- Additional benefits available such as: Private Health Care, Additional pension contributions & team socials.

Due to consistent growth within J Knight Design, we have a new opportunity for an Architectural Technician to join our design team. With our ongoing projects and schemes set to start, you will be involved in a range of Commercial & Residential projects from the outset.

The successful individual will be working closely with our team in the design & drawing process of our projects. You will be producing drawings using CAD software to a high standard. In this role it is essential that you have a strong attention to detail, problem solving abilities and to deliver clear drawings to assist our senior technologists.

Architectural Technician Position Overview

- Working on a range of interesting projects simultaneously within the Commercial & Residential Sectors
- Produce clear & concise drawings.
- Delivering on projects in accordance with the RIBA stages
- Collaborating closely & presenting ideas within the design team
- Assisting the senior team with project meetings & surveying

Key Responsibilities

- Develop design drawings using CAD software.
- Communicate with the project team to ensure timelines & specifications are met.
- Assist with site visits & surveys to gather accurate data for project developments.
- Basic understanding of UK building regulations & standards.
- Ability to manage multiple projects simultaneously & meet deadlines.

Position Requirements

- Relevant qualification or relevant experience ·
- Knowledge using Autodesk AutoCAD software ·
- Passion for design with a keen interest to learn & progress

Nice to haves

- Have attention to detail.
- Experience using Revit.
- Socially open to a collaborative team environment.